

RESOURCE

Drought Resilience, Adaptation and Management Policy (DRAMP) Framework

|

Description / Abstract

The Drought Resilience, Adaptation and Management Policy (DRAMP) Framework is a fundamental guidance document to understand and use the UNCCD Drought Toolbox. It also provides essential technical and policy guidance to interpret many other UNCCD resources, such as drought finance, sand dust and storms, and capacity development.

The link to the full document of DRAMP Framework is:

https://www.unccd.int/resources/publications/drought-resilience-adaptat...;

Publication year

2018

Publisher

United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification - UNCCD

Language English

Source URL:

<https://droughtclp.unccd.int/resource/drought-resilience-adaptation-and-management-policy-dramp-framework>